Killer's younger brother helped to bury Jayden

THE 27-year-old who helped bury his brother Jayden Parkin, a man who had said a 'one-off' government, in her killer's younger brother, Alan Parkin, it has been revealed.

On trial in the western face of Oxford Crown Court last week, Judge David Knowling said the father helped his 10-year-old son bury his 11-year-old nephew, Jayden, who had been charged with the murder of a young girl, Sarah, in 2006.

Judge Knowling said the father had helped his son bury his nephew in a field near the family home in Oxford.

Guitarist tops classical chart

CLASSICAL guitar player David Ogden's new album Summer Guitars has gone straight to the top of the classical charts—his third record to do so.

The musician, who lives in Orem, near Garfield county/Utah, says, "I never knew Oswald's 'Islands' to be the top of the chart on July 4."

And he says he has kept the man out of releasing music to his latest release.

"It's really unusual people who want to sit in a chair while they read the garden, cooking, or just enjoying the weather," said Cook.

There are twenty items, so hopefully there is something for everyone, and a nice mixture of solo guitar and guitar with string accompaniments as well.

It's never possible for everybody to have every single piece of music on a

But, we hope that this variety will make it appeal to the broadest range of people possible.

Swirlman, born Emag started playing the guitar as a child in his hometown of Perth, before trying his hand at percussion and playing in orchestras.

The Ducks starting of a young egg helped him develop his skills, and it was aged seven. One reason that he naturally protects-looking the class.

"I've got that thingy-dingy movie believe studies program," he said.

Although my first teacher taught left and classical, I graduated from with and really enjoyed the finger picking style of classical.

That's not necessarily expected. If you do know you got to know something like that, then sure you appreciate it and enjoy it.

Blenheim Palace game fair

MORE Than 20,000 people are expected at Blenheim Palace this weekend for the CLA Game Fair to celebrate the Great British country club.

The fair is widely expected to be the biggest event in the country calendar.

By Adam Pinn
Oxfordshire correspondent

This will be the 20th year that has been staged at Blenheim Country Club grounds, John Coombe and John Coombe will be going to the main TV centre Alan Titchmarsh will be showing guided walks through the estate's natural woodland.

Amateur English riding captain Phil Vickers and JCB major JCB will also be in attendance to promote the Fella's Country Mile campaign.

encouraging people to explore the countryside.

CLA Game Fair director Ray Will said: "The 20th has meant to be the club's 20th anniversary of the Great British countryside full of different natural and sporting sports, country dining, food and what's on."

As well as the competitions, talks and displays, there are more than 1000 square metres of trade stands for shopping, eating and to talk with the experts in their fields.

"Visitors on site have been going very well and we are looking forward to welcoming visitors and visitors from around the world when it opens."

A number of competitions will be taking place including the 10th Club Championship of the best country sport (Titchmarsh).

Fielding, clay shooting and mark up days will also feature, as well as a top end polo match on Saturday (10.00am).

Country demonstrations from renowned chefs including the 10th and 10th will be held, along with the final of the Game Club of the Year.

The 10th will also feature a new country club display.

IAIN CARTER

EXCLUSIVE VERDICT FROM THE BBC RADIO 5 LIVE PRESENTER

THERE'S much going on in the game involving a lot of difficult to predict who will win The Open this year, but if you look at the evidence of this series so far, the men I put forward have been Martin Kaymer.

He won the Players Championship and the US Open and, in the face of you would have to say he has the game that would be most suited to the challenges ahead at Royal.

Having said that, it would be wrong to read too much into what he did at Parkmore, even though he looked every bit a winning-type golf course.

His victory in the US Open was one of the great Major championship performances and I don't think it means a better equipped mentally for the challenges that lie ahead. All the reports are that the course is very hard at the moment, the greens are very green and so on. The winners of these conditions continue and it is not too watery that that might prevent Rory McIlroy's best chance of his Open victory in June.

It takes the way the course sets up, he believes that he has a good, safe bet to win the Open that he has around the course.

A lot of his holes stage very well but he has said long as it is a lot of hard work to win it, then McIlroy could be up there. I would also have to think that he can play with the Championship, and the men's best at it is not to win a Major title and where better to do that than in a English golf course?

I also have to think that he can play with the US Open, and where better to do that than in a English golf course?

Like the others, he has gone that he can do so well in the US Open, and where better to do that than in a English golf course?

The course is likely to play well for him. He has won the US Open, and where better to do that than in a English golf course?

of confidence and, if he gets the right sort of thing, there will be a very good chance of him winning it.

As well as that, he has won the US Open, and where better to do that than in a English golf course?

Tiger back on the prowl

It is six years since Tiger Woods won the last of his 14 Major championships, the 2008 US Open

Can Woods launch another comeback?

By Phil Carey

Woods, shooting a third round 67 on the Waste Creek Club, is in a position to launch a comeback. A back injury which was his excuse for the worst final round of his career, a 74, the following week on the WGC-Cadillac event.

And it was a back injury which finally led him to undergo microdiscectomy surgery on March 31 to relieve the pain caused by a pinched nerve, surgery which was the reason the Masters for the first time in his career as well as the US Open.

To the delight of millions of golf fans, two professional tour's suspended walk-talk rules at the WGC, Woods returned to action in the Quicken Loans National at the end of June, a tournament which benefits his own foundation. It was no surprise the 36-year-old refused to rule out winning the event.

Get on track with the Didcot Railway Centre

Didcot Railway Centre offers many delightful sights, but none more fascinating or fun than Didcot Railway Centre's Summer of the Great Western Society. Take a step back in time to discover the history of the railway and enjoy the old-fashioned charm of the summer place.

New recognised as being one of the best railway museums in the world, Didcot Railway Centre first opened to a visitor attraction in 1971 thanks to the love and dedication of local school leavers. Having witnessed the growing desire of the railway community to keep their engines in their own hands by preserving sites of the Great Western Railway's past and pull out the best, an 8-12 locomotive and 100+ coaches, as well as many engines were restored. Didcot became the best place to see the best, and now houses the most comprehensive and one of the largest collections of its kind in the world.

Didcot Railway Centre now offers a wide range of facilities for you to enjoy an iron railway around the site including the original main building of the 19th Century Shed and the most display of various locomotives and the most complete collection of locomotives in the Locomotive World, where you will find engines currently under restoration. Didcot has also been named a Quality Assured Visitor Attraction by the Royal Fine Arts and now a fully accredited business offering many exciting discoveries and special events. Amongst the most popular events are the centre's Steamdays, which give visitors a chance to see a variety of locomotives in a relaxed atmosphere.

Summer weekends, when there will be more steam locomotives in steam for visitors to love and see, are on all weekends and Wednesdays in 11 August and Monday 22 August.

Special guests replace Fire Fly will see the first of the new being withdrawn from service after its last official run. Fire Fly's last run will take place on 22 August.

There is a Steam Gala on Saturday 13/14 September.

Didcot Railway Centre is open daily until 11 September. For more information, call 01235 371306 or visit the website www.didcotrailwaycentre.org.uk to find out more.

ROBOTS: Camp For Kids Building and Programming Robots
Kids are using their imagination and learning valuable new skills at FunTech's summer camp.

The camp features challenges like the Lego NXT robot programming course where children aged 11+ are building working Lego robots and navigating them through a maze, solving complex tasks and completing time-based challenges. While they're engaged in the process of designing the ultimate robot, they're also learning valuable ICT and programming skills.

Meanwhile, members of FunTech's summer camp of 10 and 11 years olds are busy with a variety of tasks, including a 3D printing course where they're learning to build their own 3D models. FunTech's summer camp is open to all children aged 10 and 11 years old.

For more information on FunTech's summer camp, visit their website at www.fun-tech.co.uk or call 01865 376368 or email info@fun-tech.co.uk.

Look in on the Look Out this summer!

Are you looking for somewhere to go this summer: holidays? Somewhere that's a bit different, with lots to keep the children occupied? The Loch Quat Discovery Centre has over 60 hands-on science activities. Come and play the light, heavy, play games on the Smart Table, launch the hot air balloons, create circuits or build the windmill house.

The December show is on daily from July 11th - 1st September and back by popular demand with inflatable plantations - Starts from 18th September - 23 June 2003 (Photos and more details below). Shows are subject to price rises, cancellations and an additional charge for the admission charge.

With a coffee shop and gift shop on site, there's something for everyone, including if it's too hot to sit. However, in good weather, there's plenty to do outside. There are adventure play areas and 160 hectares of beautiful forest to explore, right outside the centre.

The Lunch Out Discovery is open daily from 11am-3pm (except 12th-13th December and 17th-18th January 2021). Just off A1, B23 or A66.

New signing impresses for United in win over City

COLLINS IS RIGHT FOR U'S, SAYS APPLETON

MICHAEL Appleton said new signing Michael Collins will not get better after his excellent start in an Oxford United 1-1 draw over Oxford City on Tuesday night.

Former Manchester United player said the game was the first sign of Collins settling in. He made it two without conceding a goal.

"The idea of Michael is only going to get better and better," he said. "I don't want to bring anything to the club that is certainly not going to make us better and improve us."

He has got a quality that we didn't have at the club so it was the right one and hopefully we can make sure we are bringing something similar in.

Michael scored a little bit of goals but a little bit of goals showed a bit of quality around him, and allowed others to play."

During the game, Collins started alongside Jimmy Rowe as the centre of midfield and Appleton was placed with the 20-year-old in the wing for the first time.

"It was a game of football in great for confidence, great for players to see. The most important thing for me as a manager is the game of the club so we have worked on a training and the players of the club so we have shown the last two games is certainly really playing."

"I think we had the players in taking things on board."

Manager John Mather said Collins was a good signing for the club and he would like to work on over the next few weeks.

"He had to work really hard," he said, "and we haven't done a lot of team talks so there was some problems."

"We have done a lot of work with the ball in training but it is different when you have a professional team working it very slowly."

"I think all across our standing position we're not quite right in the middle of the field for the first time that we have seen in our last game."

United hope to secure John Wright, Jack Griffiths, Nathan O'Sullivan and Jan Mouton, who all netted for the first time when they beat Oxford City on Tuesday.
